

Should You Contact Us?

We understand that disputes facing you or your family can seem daunting. It is our goal to put you at ease.

The first step, we believe, is to provide you with as much information as possible so you can make informed, confident decisions throughout this complex process. This is not an empty promise; our attorneys are experts in their fields, so they are well-equipped to provide you with up to date, relevant and useful information at every stage of your case.

We encourage you to explore our site to find the information that may apply to your case. If you have any questions or would like to schedule a free consultation, please contact us.

If you select us to represent you in a case, we will work closely with you throughout the process. As the public has come to appreciate, litigation is not a quick process. We want you to know that when you have chosen us to represent you, you have someone who has the staying power to see you through the process.

If you feel that you have been affected by any product or service in the cases we handle, then you should contact us immediately and we will determine if you have a case to pursue.
